FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 17, 2020

Cedar Creek boat launch closed for upgrading through Sept. 14

WOODLAND, Wash —The Cedar Creek river access and boat launch, located on the North Fork Lewis River in Clark County, will be closed from July 20 through Sept. 14, so that the boat launch can be improved.

PacifiCorp, which provides recreational activities along the Lewis River, regrets the inconvenience of the temporary closure of this popular ramp. An upgrade was in order to maintain quality recreational experience and doing the work now will make the facility ready for use in the busy fall fishing season.

Signs will be posted near to river access to remind users of the closure.
