Fee increases at Lewis River recreation sites help maintain quality experience for visitors

ARIEL, Wash. (Oct. 23, 2025) — A new fee structure will go into effect at Pacific Power’s recreation sites on the Lewis River early next month.

Beginning November 1, these fees will help cover increased operating and maintenance costs at some of our recreation facilities. Thousands of guests enjoy the parks and campgrounds every year, and this change will allow Pacific Power to continue providing exceptional experiences for visitors while keeping prices reasonable.

The following sites will see an increase in daily recreation fees:

SITE NAME	RECREATION TYPE	PREVIOUS FEE	NEW FEE
CRESAP BAY PARK/CAMPGROUND	Campsite	$34	$37
	Group camp	$510	$555
	Extra people (3 max per campsite)	$3	$4
	Boat moorage	$5	$15
SADDLE DAM PARK	Shoreline dispersed camping (per night parking fee)	$15	$20
